

ICAR-NIANP Licenced Two Methane Mitigation Technologies on 14th April

The ICAR-National Institute of Animal Nutrition and Physiology, Bengaluru, Karnataka licensed two methane mitigation technologies. 'Anti-methanogenic feed supplement Harit Dhara' was licensed to eVerse.AI Pvt. Ltd, Nagpur through Agrinnovate India Limited, New Delhi. The eVerse.AI Pvt. Ltd was represented by Mr. Ashish Sonkusare, Director for signing the MoU. The second technology 'Non-conventional oil' was licensed to M/s Gou Agritech Pvt. Ltd, Bangalore represented by the Director, Mr C.N. Shabarish.

Dr. Raghavendra Bhatta, Deputy Director General (Animal Science), New Delhi has presided over the technology commercialization programme and urged the licensee to promote the technologies to a wider scale for achieving the methane mitigation from Indian livestock. Dr. Artabandhu Sahoo, Director, ICAR-NIANP congratulated the licensees and informed that the that these products were developed through systematic and comprehensive research. Dr. P.K. Malik, Head, BE&ES division presented the brief overview of technologies, whereas Dr. A.P. Kolte, I/c ITMU conducted the function. All the Senior officials of ICAR-NIANP were present during the programme. The programme was ended with the vote of thanks by Dr. G. Krishnan, Pr. Scientist.

