

Dairy Farmers Field day at Interior corner of Andhra Pradesh

The ICAR-National Institute of Animal Nutrition and Physiology, Bengaluru organized one day Farmers-Scientist Interaction meet cum Input Distribution on (21.03.2025) scientific feeding for dairy farmers, We reached to remote villages(Gestampalli, Yalakallu, Vogu, Y.C Bandapalli, Chintamakulapalle etc) of V Kota, Chittoor, Dt Andra Pradesh and distributed Inputs (Rubber mat, Milk can, Fertimin plus powder, Ladies & school bags, Stationary kit, Veterinary medicinal kit, First aid kit) to selected SC Dairy farmers under Development Action Plan for Scheduled Caste (DAPSC). A total of 100 dairy farmers belonging to Scheduled caste benefitted in this program. This program is intended for educating farmers about scientific feeding of dairy animals.

Dr. Artabandhu Sahoo Director ICAR-NIANP inaugurated the program, distributed various Farming inputs and explained about importances of Rubber mat and scientific feeding for dairy animals. He stressed upon the role of ICAR-NIANP in contributing to Nutrition and Welfare of livestock in different physiological stages for augmenting productivity and he also highlighted about Fertimin plus powder, Cleanliness of dairy farms, Clean milk production.

During the program, Dr Ramaiah ex Deputy Director of Kolar helped to coordinate and conduct the program and expressed their satisfaction on the benefits received from ICAR-NIANP Scientists under DAPSC and Dr. A Arangasamy, Dr. S Anandan, Dr. PSP Gupta, Dr S Jash, and Dr. C. Devraj Scientists of ICAR-NIANP participated and helped in organizing this event and appraised the importance of scientific feeding for dairy farmers.