

International Women's day

The ICAR-National Institute of Animal Nutrition and Physiology, Bengaluru organized International Women's day and Farmers-Scientist Interaction meet cum Input Distribution on (07.03.2025) scientific feeding and accelerate action for women equality at ICAR NIANP, Adugodi Bengaluru. A total of 73 women dairy farmers belonging to Scheduled caste benefitted in this program. This program is intended for educating women farmers to enhance hygienic and increased milk production and methods to prevent reproduction problems of dairy cows. During this program materials distributed to women farmers. Stainless steel milk buckets, First aid kits, Fertimin plus powder, Deworming tablet, Customized Ladies bags, Informative leaflet and School bags to SC Dairy farmers of Karnataka and Tamil Nadu under Development Action Plan for Scheduled Caste (DAPSC).

Dr. Artabandhu Sahoo Director ICAR-NIANP inaugurated the program, distributed various farming inputs and explained about importance of Cattle feeds and scientific feeding for dairy animals. He stressed upon the role of women empowerment and their importance in dairy sector, sustainable livestock farming.

Mrs. Shilparani Vijaykumar, Branch Manager SBI Adugodi, Bengaluru, Inaugurated and distributed various farming inputs, appreciated the ongoing ICAR NIANP activities to dairy farmers and educated Women Farmers about financial management, adopting recent technologies and ongoing schemes at Bank. She also explained about women empowerment and accelerate action for women Equality. All the staff members of ICAR-NIANP attended the program.