

ICAR-NIANP organized training for Hatsun Agro product Limited staff

Three-day customized training on Basics of dairy cattle nutrition and feed formulation was organized from 17-19 May 2023 at ICAR-NIANP. Eight trainees from Hatsun Agro Product Limited, Chennai with four trainees each from the quality control and cattle feed production units participated in the training program. The training comprised of a combination of theory and practical classes. A wide range of topics covering the basics of dairy cattle feeding & nutrition, feed ingredients selection & feed adulterants, feed processing technologies, feed safety & quality control, feed toxins, feed analysis, feed formulation for concentrate & total mixed rations formulation and silage preparation was covered during the three days training. The course faculty experts were drawn from the institute, dairy cooperatives and veterinary universities. The training course was coordinated by S. Anandan., D. Rajendran and N M Soren of the Institute.